Let's Move

By Larissa Honsek

Adorable clay characters invite children to learn about their bodies through movement. Wave your arms! Lift your legs! Open your hands and cover your eyes! You won't be able to stay in your seat for this engaging movement primer. From the creator of Opposites comes another colorful board book for children learning what their bodies can do!

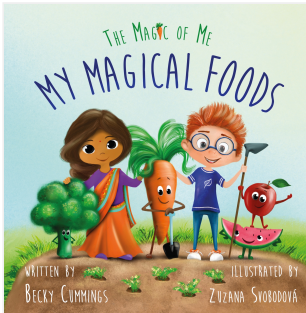

About The Author(s)

Larissa Honsek is a Berlin-based graphic designer, photographer, and illustrator who loves to explore the intersections of these fields. Her tribe of bright and colorful characters is born out of experiments with a multitude of mixed-media elements: clay sculpting, photography, digital and analogue collaging, painting, drawing, printing, and scanning.

My Magical Foods

The Magic of Me Series

By Becky Cummings

Do you know a picky eater? Do you wish your children or students would eat more vegetables? Raising healthy eaters starts early and you can instill great habits now in the littles you love! My Magical Foods teaches children how fruits and vegetables come naturally from the Earth, which make them some of the best food on the planet. It also shows super strong animals like the gorilla and giraffe that eat plant based. Finally, it will share ideas that motivate children to pick healthy snacks and meals.

About The Author(s)

Becky Cummings is an author, teacher, and mom of three. She loves kids and speaking her truth. Becky is blessed to combine these passions by writing children's books that spread messages of love, hope, faith, health, and happiness. When she isn't writing you might find her salsa dancing, eating a veggie burrito at her favorite Mexican joint, or traveling to new places! Her dream is to world school her children by spending a year on a cruise ship sailing around the globe. Becky is available for author visits and wants to connect with you.

Zara's Big Messy Goodbye

Zara's Big Messy

By Rebekah Borucki, Illustrated By Danielle

Pioli, Contributions by Gina Moffa, LCSW

Wheat Penny Press
Publication Date: 4/6/2021

Trim Size: 8.5in x 8.5in (216mm x 216mm)
Retail Price (USD): 14.99
Age: 4 - 8
ISBN: 978-1736949733

After seven-year-old Zara experiences a death in her family, she learns that being sad can look different for different people. With her Mama's help, Zara also learns a way to find comfort when big messy goodbyes feel too big and messy. Written by mother-of-five and meditation guide Rebekah Borucki, Zara's Big Messy Goodbye teaches children how to recognize and accept their grief while also showing them how to accept the way others grieve. And though this story deals with the loss of a beloved family member, it is appropriate for teaching children about all kinds of loss, like a broken friendship or a separation caused by moving to a new home or school. Grief and trauma therapist Gina Moffa, LCSW, will also be your guide. You'll find a section for parents, teachers, and caregivers at the back of the book, which offers you several exercises to use to work through grief together.

About The Author(s)

Rebekah "Bex" Borucki, founder of BexLife® and the Blisssed In® wellness movement, is a mother of five, a meditation guide, an indie publisher, and an author of books for big and little readers. She has taught meditation as a profound act of self-care that can be executed effortlessly and effectively to hundreds of thousands of individuals online and in live workshops and public events. Rebekah's mission is to make mental-health support and stress-management tools accessible to all. Most recently, Rebekah launched her own publishing imprint, Wheat Penny Press, and a nonprofit public charity, the Wheat Penny Press Little Readers Big Change Initiative.
